

TORRANCE PERSONS AND PASTIMES

Comings, Goings and Doings of Folks Hereabouts

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Bale were recent guests of Long Beach friends.

Mrs. Ault Shugg of El Monte was a recent guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. H. Fess, of Arlington avenue.

Mrs. A. B. Street and son attended the dahlia show in Los Angeles Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Double entertained at dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ed Somers of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lessing and son Paul were week-end guests of friends in Santa Barbara.

Cecil Shugg has accepted a position with the Standard Oil company at El Monte.

Mrs. A. B. Street and son Joe were dinner guests Sunday of Mrs. R. M. Skinner of Hermosa.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude P. Roberts spent from Wednesday until Saturday with friends in San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Geritzen of Hyde Park were entertained at dinner Sunday by the latter's sister, Mrs. Eugene W. Boyd, of Arlington avenue.

George Burnett spent a few days of this week at his home here, and reports that he is much improved in health since he has been staying at Hesperia.

Mrs. Nellie Pennington and mother, Mrs. John A. Bowers Sr., enjoyed a visit with friends in Hollywood Sunday.

Mrs. Kate Newby of Andreo avenue was entertained Sunday by Hollywood friends.

Gene Burnett of Arlington avenue, improving rapidly, is expected home from the hospital this week.

Mrs. Joseph Lundstrom and son Joseph were dinner guests Friday of Mrs. C. E. Bowen.

Mrs. W. Ross and son Billie, of Arlington avenue, on the sick list for several days, are reported as quite recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Gadeky and Mrs. Arthur W. Meizer spent Sunday at Genascha park, Pomona.

Miss Chase, a local teacher, has built a cottage in the rear of her recently acquired Carson street property.

Dinner guests at the J. M. Fitzhugh home Sunday included Dr. and Mrs. Q. J. Rowley of Los Angeles and Mrs. Elsa Rust and Miss Sylvania of Pasadena.

Rev. and Mrs. Morris' three daughters, and the two husbands, Henry Kroeker and Arthur L. Strahle, and grandson Richard paid a brief visit to the pastoral apartments one evening this week.

MOVE TO TORRANCE

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hines are moving from Long Beach this week into their beautiful new home on Post avenue. Mr. Hines is president of the State Exchange bank.

KEYSTONE NEWS

Miss Ruth Wilson of Keystone and Mrs. J. O. Shehl of Wilmington left Tuesday for Newhall, in the mountains, to remain several weeks.

The Crochet club met at the home of Mrs. H. C. Roque, with all members present and Mrs. O. V. Kinder as visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Z. W. Jennings and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nahmens attended the supper and dance at St. Michael's hall at Vermont and Manchester last Saturday evening. They had lots of eats and a fine time generally.

The Chamber of Commerce will meet next Saturday night at the Keystone Boosters' hall on Harbor boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Jensen motored to Santa Barbara and spent a few days at Brent's camp.

Shell well No. 1, Ocean avenue and Meyler, Keystone, spudded last Sunday, and they are drilling steadily.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Bertha Everard, sister of Mrs. H. C. Roque, of Wilmington street, Keystone, and Ray Schureman of Pasadena, on September 17. An announcement dinner will be given Saturday, Oct. 6, at the home of Mr. Schureman's mother, 405 Douglas street, Pasadena.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Gates visited the mother of Mrs. Gates, Mrs. H. Roque, of Los Angeles, and then the mother of Mr. Gates, at Ocean Park. Baby Constance was glad to get home. No place like Keystone.

Henry Dimassi and family are spending several weeks more in San Pedro.

Mrs. Z. W. Jennings and Mrs. Geo. Nahmens spent Monday in Los Angeles shopping for themselves and for the 500 social, which will be the 17th of October.

The P. T. A. will have the first meeting next Tuesday afternoon.

Keystone Sunday school had an attendance of 34 last Sunday. So many newcomers in Keystone, and all are welcome to attend.

Keystone well No. 1 is making a fine showing at 2600 feet. The gas pressure, which was encountered last Sunday morning, is unusually heavy, and they are now drilling through brown shale.

Many new houses are being built in Keystone, as the demand for both renting and buying property is very brisk. Real estate men are busy.

BRING BACK VENISON

E. H. Naah, Tom Langbar and L. F. Bennett returned Saturday from a ten days' hunting and fishing trip in the high Sierras. All the neighbors enjoyed a venison roast Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. P. Gates and family motored to Santa Barbara and spent the week-end at Brent's camp.

Specials for Friday-Saturday
VEAL ROASTS
 Per Pound 10c
VEAL STEW
 Per Pound 10c
HAMS
 Whole or Half,
 Per Pound 30c
HAMBURGER
 Ground while you wait,
 Per Pound 15c
J. M. ROBERTS
 Market in
 Fess Grocery
 Phone 9

"Close Your Bright Eyes!"

and let your subconscious mind do a little thinking for you—like Jack Dempsey did when he got socked on the jaw. That well directed and dependable subconscious mind of his saved the championship.

Follow your "Hunch" (subconscious mind) and get in on some of this stuff around town. Prices may seem high—but it's the cheapest investment ever offered—yet.

Ask

C. P. Roberts

Real Estate—Oil Investments

1113 Narbonne
 Schmidt Block

Phone 105
 Lomita

(Where Buyer and Seller Meet)

For quick action—bring your listings to me.—C. P. R.

Mr. Workingman Here's Your Store

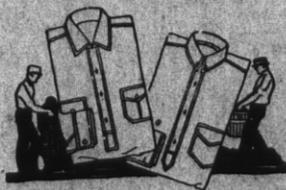

You can get just what you want here at prices you expect to pay for nationally known work clothes. Stronghold Overalls $1.85. Khaki Pants $2.45. Coveralls $2.95. Working Caps 20c.

GLOVES

We can offer you the leather glove and our special brand of oil and shop gloves from $1.25 to $2.25.

SHIRTS

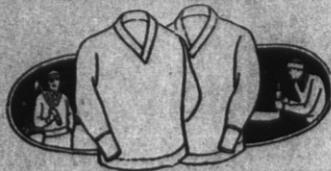

Your Favorite Work Shirt, priced from 95c to $1.25.

WORK SHOES

Work Shoes with thick soles, oil and water proof—$2.50 to $5.00.

SWEATERS

Work Sweaters—none better at our price—$2.25.

Torrance Toggery

Home of Hart,
 Schaffner &
 Marx Clothing

Si Rappaport
 Men's Store for Men
 Phone 123

Home of Walkover
 Shoes

THE FAMILY CHEER

OUR BREAD

Baked in our own sanitary ovens.
 Good, Clean, and Wholesome
 Have you tried our Good Raisin Bread?

The "Tip"
TOP BAKERY

—in—
 Paige's
 Quality Grocery

CLOSING OUT OUR LINEN and PINK CREPE UNDERTHINGS

OUR FULL STOCK OF LINEN PINK CREPE LINGERIE WILL BE CLOSED OUT

Beginning FRIDAY and lasting until every garment is sold, is our offer to the ladies and misses of Torrance and vicinity during the next few days.

Close Out Price per Garment 80c to $1.15

Every Matron and Miss Should Take Advantage of This Offer

PAULINE

Brooks Bldg.

Ladies' Wear

Torrance